Jacob (2)–the Vision of Bethel, the House of God, and being Transformed

Scripture reading: Gen. 28:10-22; John 1:51; Gen. 32:28; 35:1, 6-7, 9-15, 27.

- I. Jacob's dream in Genesis 28 was a dream of God's goal, the dream of Bethel, the dream of the house of God, which is the church today and which will consummate in the New Jerusalem as the eternal dwelling place of God and His redeemed elect—Gen. 28:10-22; 1Tim. 3:15; Rev. 21:3, 22.
 - A. God had a dream, and that dream was to have the New Jerusalem, a built-up city, as the consummation of His economy.
 - B. Our dream is to become the New Jerusalem as the consummation of God's economy—Rev. 21:9-10.
 - C. This Jacob's dream is the most crucial point in the whole book of Genesis and the most crucial word in the revelation of God.
 - D. In the account of Jacob's dream, the stone(Gen. 28:11, 18, 22), the pillar(v.18), the house of God(vv.17, 19, 22), and the oil(v.18) are outstanding items and are the basic factors with which the Bible is composed with:
 - 1. The stone symbolizes Christ as the foundation stone, the topstone, and the cornerstone for God's building, His spiritual house—Isa. 28:16; Zech. 4:7; Acts. 4:10-12.
 - 2. The stone also symbolizes the transformed man, who has been constituted with Christ as the transforming element to be material for the building of God's house—Gen. 2:12; Matt. 16:18; John 1:42; 1Cor. 13:12; 1Pet. 2:5; Rev. 21:11, 18-20.
 - 3. Jacob used the stone for a pillow, signifying that the divine element of Christ constituted into our being through our subjective experience of Him becomes a pillow for our rest, the solid support within us—cf. Matt. 11:28.
 - 4. After awaking from his dream, Jacob set up the pillow-stone as a pillar, signifying that the Christ whom we have experienced, who has been wrought into us, and on whom we rest becomes the material and the support for God's building, God's house—cf. 1Kings 7:17, 21; Gal. 2:9; Rev. 3:12.

- 5. Eventually, Jacob poured oil, a symbol of the Spirit as the consummation of the Triune God reaching man, on the pillar, symbolizing that the transformed man is one with the Triune God and expresses Him—cf. Exo. 30:23-30; Luke 4:18.
- 6. That stone became Bethel, the house of God—Gen. 28:17, 19, 22.
- E. The ladder is the center, the focus, of Jacob's dream; this dream is a revelation of Christ, for Christ is the reality of the ladder that Jacob saw—v.12; John 1:51.
 - 1. Christ as the Son of Man, in His humanity, is the ladder set up on earth that brings heaven (God) to earth (man) and joins earth and heaven as one—1:14; 14:6, 20.
 - 2. Our regenerated spirit, which is God's dwelling place today, is the base on earth where Christ as the heavenly ladder has been set up; hence, whenever we turn to our spirit, we experience Christ as the ladder bringing God to us and us to God—Eph. 2:22; 2Tim. 4:22; cf. Heb. 10:19; 4:16.
- F. Where this ladder is, there are an open heaven, the transformed man, the anointing upon this man, and the building up of the house of God with this man.

II. Jacob, a man under God's transforming hand, represents a life of transformation for God's building—Gen. 32:28; 35:10, 15.

- A. There are three distinct periods in Jacob's life: the period of dealings (chs. 25-32), the period of transformation (chs. 32-36), and the period of maturity (chs. 37-50).
- B. Everything happened to Jacob was for his transformation:
 - 1. In order to be transformed, Jacob had to be pressed into situations that gave him no choice except to undergo a change—31:36-42; 32:28.
 - 2. From Jacob's experience we see that everything that happens to us is under God's sovereignty for our transformation—Rom. 8:28-29; 12:2.
 - 3. Jacob's transformation began from the time the Lord came and touched Jacob's strongest part, his thigh, in Genesis 32; from that time onward, the process of transformation continued until chapter 37.

- C. Jacob had been chosen to be the expression of God and a prince of God, and he could become God's expression and a prince of God only through transformation—Gen. 1:26; 32:28; 2Cor. 3:18.
 - 1. God's purpose in dealing with Jacob, a supplanter, was to transform him into Israel, a prince of God, bearing His image to express Him and exercising His dominion to represent Him—Gen. 1:26.
 - 2. Because of the fall, we became distorted clay; God's way is not to reform distorted ones but to transform them into stones for the building up of God's house, Bethel—2:7; John 1:42; 1Pet. 2:4-5.
 - 3. Transformation is not outward correction or adjustment but the metabolic function of the life of God in us, by the addition of the element of the divine life of Christ into our being, so that we may express the image of Christ outwardly—2Cor. 3:18; Rom. 5:10; 12:2; 8:29.
- D. Transformation issues in building up; the building up of the jasper wall of the New Jerusalem goes along with transformation—Rev. 4:3; 21:11, 18-19.

III. In Genesis 35 the vision of Bethel came again; however, this time it did not come as a dream—it came as a reality—vv. 1-15.

- A. We all come into the church life twice; the first time we come in dream, and the second time we come in reality.
- B. At Bethel Jacob's name was changed to Israel, indicating that his being had been changed; now he was Israel at Bethel—32:28; 35:10.
- C. In chapter 35 there is a crucial and radical turn from the individual experience of God to the corporate experience of God—the experience of God as the God of Bethel, El-Bethel—35:7; Eph. 3:17-21; 4:4-6.
- D. The All-sufficient God is revealed for the building of Bethel; only at Bethel is it possible for us to realize the all-sufficiency of our God—Gen. 35:11a.
- E. At Bethel Jacob set up a pillar and poured out a drink offering on it; this indicates that the drink offering is for God's building—v.14.
- F. After experiencing the reality of Bethel, Jacob entered into full fellowship with God at Hebron; the fellowship at Hebron means intimacy, peace, satisfaction, and joy—v.27; 1Cor. 1:9.

Reference Scripture Verses:

Gen. 28:10-22. 10 And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. 11 And he came to a certain place and spent the night there, because the sun had set; and he took one of the stones of the place and put it under his head, and he lay down in that place. 12 And he dreamed: There was a ladder set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. 13 And there was Jehovah, standing above it; and He said, I am Jehovah, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie, I will give to you and to your seed. 14 And your seed will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and in you and in your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed. 15 And, behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go and will cause you to return to this land, for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you. 16 And Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, Surely Jehovah is in this place, and I did not know it. 17 And he was afraid and said, How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven. 18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning and took the stone that he had put under his head, and he set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it. 19 And he called the name of that place Bethel, but the name of the city was Luz previously. 20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me and will keep me in this way that I go and will give me bread to eat and garments to put on, 21 So that I return to my father's house in peace, then Jehovah will be my God, 22 And this stone, which I have set up as a pillar, will be God's house; and of all that You give me I will surely give one tenth to You.

John 1:51 And He said to him, Truly, truly, I say to you, You shall see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.

Gen. 32:28 And He said, Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men and have prevailed.
