Abraham (1) - God's Calling and Living by Faith

Scripture reading: Gen. 12:1-8; 13:3-4, 18.

I. Our God is the God of three particular persons—Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—Exo. 3:6, 15-16.

- A. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are the foundations of the nation of Israel; without them there would not be the nation of Israel—Acts 3:13; Gal. 6:16:
  - 1. God's people became His people through the experiences of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; their experiences culminated in Israel, the people of God.
  - 2. We all need to have the elements of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; without these elements we cannot be the people of God, the Israel of God.
- B. In the book of Genesis the records of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob overlap; Genesis does not portray them as three separate individuals but as constituents of one corporate person.
- C. We need to know and experience the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

II. God's calling of Abraham—Gen. 12:1

- A. The background of the God's calling—Babel:
  - 1. Out from an environment of forsaking God, exalting man, denying the right of God and serving idols—Josh. 24:2.
  - 2. From the result of the fourth fall of man—Gen. 11:1-9.
- B. The significance of God's calling
  - 1. It was a new beginning for God; Abraham is the starting point in God's plan of redemption and in His work of recovery—Rom. 4:17.
  - 2. It was to give up the race of Adam and to choose Abraham with his descendants as the new race to be His people for the fulfilling of His eternal purpose—Gal. 3:7-9, 14; Rom. 4:16-17.
  - 3. It was a transfer of life that was from the fallen life of the old creation to the stronger and better life of the new creation.
- C. The motive and strength of being called
  - 1. God's appearing; the God of glory appeared to Abraham, paying him a visit with His personal appearance because at that time Abraham was under influence of a strong background in Chaldea—Acts 7:2, 55-56; Josh. 24:2; cf. Matt. 4:16, 18-22; 2Cor. 4:6.

2. God's calling: When God came to Abraham, He called him, and calling means speaking; It is not a small thing to hear God's speaking—Acts 7:3-4; Gen. 12:1.
  3. God's promise: Most of God's speaking to us is His promise—vv.2-3.
    - a. "Go from your land and from your relatives and from your father's house to the land that I will show you" —v.1
    - b. "And I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great" —v.2.
    - c. "And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed" —v.3.
    - d. God's promise to Abraham was His preaching gospel to him and it implied God's eternal purpose—Gal. 3:8, 14; Gen. 1:26-28.
- D. The process in answering God's calling
1. God called Abraham the first time at Ur of Chaldea in Mesopotamia—Acts 7:2-4.
    - a. To leave his land and relatives but Abraham not obeyed God's calling right away.
    - b. Abraham was taken to Haran by his father after his brother (Haran)'s death—Gen. 11:31.
  2. God called Abraham the second time at Haran after His father's death—11:32-12:1.
    - a. Not only to come out of his land and from his relatives but also out of his father's house.
    - b. In this second calling, God gave Abraham the promise of the gospel as an incentive to encourage him to answer His calling—vv.2-3.
    - c. But Abraham obeyed God's calling in a dragging way; he still took Lot with him—v.4.
  3. God removed Abraham into the Land of Canaan—Acts 7:4; cf. Heb. 11:8.
    - a. Apparently, Abraham journeyed into Canaan by faith, but actually, it was God who "removed him" across the Euphrates River into the good land.
    - b. To be saved is to be delivered out of many negative situations so that we may come into God's goal, God's good land.
  4. Abraham passed through the land to the place which God confirmed.
    - a. At Haran, Abraham crossed the river, and traveled to Shechem, to the oak of Moreh—12:6.
    - b. God appeared to him again and confirmed that he arrived at the right place—v.7a.
    - c. At this place, Abraham received the promise of the good land and built an altar—v.7b.

- d. When we get the promise of the good land, there we can build an altar to the Lord, call on His name, and have intimate fellowship with Him—v.8.

III. Abraham lived by faith; he was the first Hebrew to live the life of the altar and the tent—Gen 12:7-8; 13:3-4, 18; cf. Gen. 14:13; Exo. 7:16:

- A. The root of the word Hebrew means “to pass over,” especially to pass over a river; therefore, a Hebrew is a river crosser.
- B. The Lord Jesus appeared to Abraham as the great I Am, the God of glory, to transfuse Himself into Abraham—John 8:56-58; Exo. 3:14-15; Acts 7:2.
  1. God’s goal with Abraham was not merely to save him out of his environment and his background but to bring him into the land of Canaan for the fulfillment of God’s purpose.
  2. Through God’s repeated appearances to Abraham, God transfused Himself into him, causing him to experience a spiritual infusion with a spiritual infiltration of God’s essence into his being.
  3. Abraham’s faith not originated with himself but was a reaction to the God of glory appearing to him and to the transfusing and infusing of God’s element into his being.
  4. God’s appearing and transfusing issued in his consecration, causing him to build an altar, live in a tent, and live totally for God.
  5. Abraham trusted in God for His instant leading, taking God’s presence as the road map for his traveling—Heb. 11:8.
- C. Abraham built three altars in three places—Shechem, Bethel, and Hebron; these three places represent the good land, typifying the all-inclusive Christ as the all-inclusive Spirit—Gen. 12:6-8; 13:18; Col. 1:12; 2:6-7; Phil. 1:19.
- D. Abraham’s dwelling in a tent, a movable abode, testifies that he did not belong to the world but lived the life of a sojourner on earth; erecting a tent is an expression, a declaration, that we do not belong to this world but that we belong to a better country, the New Jerusalem—Heb. 11:9-10, 13-16; cf. Psa. 90:1.

Now Abram was seventy-five years old when he went out of Haran. 5 And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the souls that they had acquired in Haran, and they went out to go to the land of Canaan. And they came to the land of Canaan. 6 And Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. And at that time the Canaanites were in the land. 7 And Jehovah appeared to Abram and said, To your seed I will give this land. And there he built an altar to Jehovah who had appeared to him. 8 And he proceeded from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to Jehovah and called upon the name of Jehovah.

Gen. 13:3-4. 3 And he continued on his journey from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, 4 To the place of the altar, which he had made there formerly; and there Abram called on the name of Jehovah.
