The Body of Christ and the Local Churches

Scriptures reading: Rom. 12:5; 16:1, 4-5, 16, 23.

- I. The central thought of the book of Romans is concerning the Gospel of God that God, in His complete salvation, is making sinners the sons of God to constitute the Body of Christ which is expressed as the local churches— Rom. 1:1, 16-17; 5:10; 3:23; 8:14; 12:5; 16:1, 4-5, 16, 23.
 - A. Romans begins with sinners and ends with the churches.
 - B. The sinners are redeemed, justified, and regenerated to become children of God; the children of God grow into sons of God to be members of the Body; and the Body is expressed as local churches.
 - C. Redemption is the procedure, salvation in life is the process, the Body of Christ is the goal, and local churches are the expression of the Body.

- II. The will of God in Romans 12:2 is God's intention, according to His good pleasure, to have the organic Body of Christ as the corporate expression of Christ—Eph. 1:9, 11; 5:17.
 - A. After speaking of God's will in Romans 12:2, Paul goes on in verses 4 and 5 to unveil the Body of Christ; therefore, the will of God is the Body of Christ—vv. 4-5; 1Cor. 12:27.
 - B. God's goal in His economy is to have the Body for Christ as His corporate expression; this is the peak of the divine revelation in Romans.
 - C. In this chapter the will of God is that we whom God has chosen, called, redeemed, justified, sanctified, and conformed unto glorification in the preceding eleven chapters may be members one of another to have the living of the Body of Christ.
 1. God's intention is not to populate the heaven with millions of redeemed people, with each one living in a magnificent mansion, or to produce a multitude of redeemed, regenerated, transformed, and glorified sons who live independently of one another.
 2. God's goal is a corporate entity; in the present age, this corporate entity is the Body of Christ, and in eternity, this entity will be the New Jerusalem.

III. According to Romans 16 the Body life is lived out and expressed as in the local churches.

- A. The Body of Christ is not a mere doctrine; it is a reality in the sight of God.
- B. The universal Body of Christ is manifested in a locality as the church of God in that place.
 - 1. The New Testament practices of having one church in one city with one eldership—Acts 8:1; 13:1; 14:23; Titus 1:5; 1Cor. 1:2.
 - 2. The Body of Christ is uniquely one universally, and the expression of the Body must be uniquely one locally; this was both the teaching and practice of the apostles in the New Testament—Matt 16:18; 18:17; cf. Rev. 1:4, 11.
 - 3. It is through the building up of the churches locally that the Lord will have the building up of the Body universally—1Cor. 14:4-5, 12; Eph. 4:16.
- C. All genuine churches are therefore the Body of Christ in its concrete local expressions—1Cor. 1:2; 12:27.

Rom. 16:25 Now to Him who is able to establish you according to my gospel, that is, the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which has been kept in silence in the times of the ages
