The Gospel of God and God's Complete Salvation

Scriptures reading: Rom. 1:1-4, 9, 15-16; 5:10; 8:3, 28-30; 12:5; 16:25.

I. The subject of Romans is the gospel of God concerning His Son–1:3.

- A. In Paul's view, the gospel is the proclamation of Jesus Christ, for "the gospel of God concerns the Son of God, Jesus Christ our Lord"–16:25.
- B. This wonderful person has two natures–the divine nature and the human nature, divinity and humanity–1:3-4.
- C. Romans speaks of the Son in a particular way:
  - 1. God sent "His own Son in the likeness of the flesh of sin and concerning sin, condemned sin in the flesh"–8:3.
    - a. The Son is the only begotten Son in the eternal Godhead, the One who is in the bosom of the Father, who co-exist and coinheres as God with the Father and the Spirit, the One who had glory with the Father "before the world was"–John 3:16; 1:18; 17:5.
    - b. In the fulfillment of the prophecies in Isaiah, the Father gave the Son through the process of incarnation in which something "of the Holy Spirit" was "begotten" in Mary, and "the holy thing" born of her was called the Son of God; This is Lord Jesus, the unique God-man, the mingling of divinity and humanity in one wonderful person–Isa 7:14; 9:6; Matt. 1:20; Luke 1:35.
    - c. He did not know sin and in Him there was no sin–2Cor. 5:21.
    - d. He was in the likeness of the flesh of sin, having the element of the flesh but not having the nature of sin.
    - e. Because He was in the likeness of the flesh of sin, He could fulfill the type of the bronze serpent, and, as our Substitute in His vicarious death, provide the means for God to condemn sin in the flesh–John 3:14; cf. Num. 21:4-9.
    - f. God "did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all" when He "was delivered for our offenses" –Rom. 8:32; 4:25.
  - 2. He "came out of the seed of David according to the flesh, who was designated the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness out of the resurrection of the dead" –Rom. 1:3-4.
    - a. The Son of God sent by God came, with respect to His humanity, out of the seed of David; "The seed of David" implies Christ's human nature; by incarnation, God was brought into humanity–8:3; 1:3.
    - b. The Lord Jesus was designated the Son of God in His resurrection; by incarnation Christ, the only begotten Son of God in His divinity became, in and with His humanity, the Son of God in another sense–the firstborn Son of God–1:4; 8:29; Heb. 1:6; cf. Acts 13:33.
    - c. As the only begotten Son of God, He is the Son of God only in His divinity; as the firstborn Son of God, He is the Son of God in His humanity.
- D. The firstborn Son of God, the first God-man, is the prototype for the production of the many sons, the many God-men, who, as members of the Body of Christ, are exactly the same as the firstborn Son in life, nature, and expression–1:17.
  - 1. God is using such a Christ, the firstborn Son, who possesses both divinity and humanity, as the producer and as the prototype, the model, to produce His many sons.
  - 2. We too will be designated and revealed as the sons of God, as He was in the glory of His resurrection, and with Him we will express God–8:19, 21.

3. Whereas Christ's incarnation was a matter of God becoming a man for our redemption, Christ's resurrection was a matter of man becoming God for God's expression.
4. The many sons of God, the many brothers of Christ, are the same as God in life, in nature, and in expression but not in the Godhead or as objects of worship—John 20:17; Heb. 2:11.

II. The basic thought of Romans is that God, in His complete salvation, is making sinners sons of God to constitute the Body of Christ, which is expressed as local churches—Rom. 5:10; 3:23; 8:14; 12:5; 16:1, 4-5, 16, 23.

- A. Through the justification of afforded by God in His grace, sinners can be justified, approved, by God in Christ and then, with righteousness as the foundation, can be born of God to become children of God—5:18; 8:16; cf. John 3:6; 1:12-13; Rom. 8:16; 1 John 3:1-2.
- B. The children of God must grow and develop into sons of God;
  - a. this growth and development require God's organic salvation, salvation in the life of God, which includes sanctification, renewing, transformation, conformation, and glorification—Rom. 5:10; 6:19; 12:2; 8:29-30.
  - b. The process of "son-izing", began with the regeneration of our spirit, it continues with transformation of our soul through the renewing of the mind, and eventually it will culminate with the redemption, or transfiguration, of our body—12:2; 8:23.
- C. The sons of God in Romans 8 become the members of the Body of Christ in Romans 12—12:5.
  - a. It is not God's intention simply to produce a multitude of redeemed, regenerated, transformed, and glorified sons who live independently of one another; God's goal is a corporate entity, the Body of Christ, the New Jerusalem in eternity.
  - b. We were redeemed and we are being saved in life not for our individual spirituality but for the Body of Christ.
- D. The Body of Christ, however, must have its practical expression, and this expression is the local churches—Rom. 16:1, 4-5, 16, 23.
  - a. Although the churches appear in different places, they are not separate, and although they are local, they are still part of the unique, universal Body of Christ.
  - b. All genuine churches are therefore the Body of Christ in its concrete local expression—1 Cor. 1:2; 12:27.
  - c. In Romans 16 we see that all the churches and all the saints live in the universal fellowship of the Body of Christ and that all the saints in all the churches are in the blending life of the entire Body of Christ.
- E. Therefore, redemption is the procedure, salvation in life is the process, the Body of Christ is the goal, and the local churches are the expression of the Body.

III. "His purpose" in Romans 8 is to produce many brothers of His firstborn Son and "the will of God" in Romans 12 is the Body of Christ—8:28-29; 12:2, 4-5.
