God's Organic Salvation (1)

Scriptures reading: Rom. 5:10; 8:16; 6:19, 22.

I. The book of Romans presents a comprehensive view of God's complete salvation which has two aspects—the judicial aspect and the organic aspect—Rom. 5:10.

A. The judicial aspect is according to the righteousness of God and it is a procedure through which God fulfills all the requirements of His righteousness— 1:17; 3:21-26; 9:30-31.

1. This is for sinners to be forgiven before God (Luke 24:47), washed (Heb. 1:3), justified (Rom. 3:24-25), reconciled to God (5:10), and sanctified unto God positionally (1Cor. 1:2; Heb. 13:12).
2. As a result, sinners may enter into the grace of God (Rom. 5:2) for the accomplishment of the purpose of God.

B. The organic aspect of God's salvation is through the life of God—1:17; Acts 11:18; Rom. 5:10, 17-18, 21.

1. It includes regeneration, sanctification, renewing, transformation, confirmation, and glorification.
2. Whereas the judicial aspect is the procedure, the organic aspect is the purpose of God's salvation because it accomplishes the purpose that God desires to achieve in His economy through His divine life, that is, to obtain a corporate man to express Him in life and to represent Him by life.

C. In Rom. 5:10, reconciliation is an accomplished fact, but "saved in His life," the organic aspect of God's salvation, is a daily matter, and we believers today need "much more" to be saved in this life.

II. Six aspects of God's organic salvation revealed in the book of Romans.

A. Regeneration—Rom. 8:16; Titus 3:5.

1. The first step in the experience of organic salvation is regeneration, or the new birth.
2. To be regenerated, born anew, is to be born of God the spirit in our spirit and thereby to receive another life—the divine, uncreated, eternal life of God—in addition to our natural, created human life—John 3:3-6.

3. Those who are born of God (not merely adopted by Him through legal transaction) are genuine children of God possessing the life and nature of God—1:12-13.
  4. Now we are the children of God in reality and practicality—1John 3:1-2.
  5. Because we have been regenerated with the life of God, “the Spirit Himself witnesses with our spirit that we are children of God” —Rom. 8:16.
    - a. “Children of God” clearly presupposes regeneration, the new birth.
    - b. Along with our regenerated spirit, the Spirit witnesses to our most basic and elementary relationship with God, namely, that we are His children.
    - c. As the children of God grow and develop in the divine life, they eventually become sons of God in Romans 8, who are the members of the Body of Christ in Romans 12.
- B. Sanctification—Rom. 6:19, 22; 15:16.
1. The second stage of God's organic salvation is sanctification, which by its very nature, is related to holiness.
  2. Sanctification is, in fact, the experiential aspect of holiness.
  3. When God's holiness becomes our experience, that is sanctification, and when we are sanctified, we become holy, even as God is holy:
    - a. God the Father chose us in Christ to be holy—Eph. 1:4.
    - b. The New Jerusalem is the holy city—Rev. 21:2, 10.
  4. As a result of the sanctification in life unfolded in Romans, we will become the New Jerusalem, the holy city bearing the holiness of God.
    - a. In position the holy city is separated to God, and in disposition the holy city is saturated with God.
    - b. Sanctification involves not only a change in position, that is, a separation from a common, worldly position to a position for God, as illustrated in Matt. 23:17, 19, and in 1Tim 4:3-5, it involves also a transformation from the natural disposition to a spiritual one by Christ as the life-giving Spirit saturating all the inward parts of our being with God's nature of holiness, as mentioned in Rom. 12:2 and 2Cor. 3:18.
  5. The dispositional sanctification, the saturation of our inner being, is carried out in life and by life, and it results in life, having as “the end, the eternal life” —Rom. 5:10; 6:4, 22-23.

Rom. 1:2 Which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the <sup>3</sup>holy Scriptures,

Note: 2<sup>3</sup> The Greek words hagios, hagiosune, hagiazō, and hagiasmos, used in this book, are of the same root, which fundamentally means separated, set apart. Hagios is translated holy in v. 2; 5:5; 7:12; 9:1; 11:16; 12:1; 14:17; 15:13, 16; 16:16, and saints in v. 7; 8:27; 12:13; 15:25, 26, 31; 16:15. Hagiosune is translated holiness in v. 4. Hagiazō is a verb used as a participle and is translated sanctified in 15:16. Hagiasmos is translated sanctification in 6:19, 22. Hence, to be holy is to be separated, set apart (to God). The saints are the separated ones, the ones set apart (to God). Holiness is the nature and quality of being holy. Sanctification (to God) is the practical effect, the character in activity, and the consummate state produced by being sanctified.
